Abdulkadir Al Muhaidib

The Founder

"A story of a man who instilled the values of hard work and responsibility in his offspring, advising them to start work early in the morning, always saying, 'Provision is distributed before dawn.'"

Abdulkadir Al Muhaidib was an entrepreneur who taught us that a businessman's mindset could also be a philanthropic mindset, and that the institution which works with merchandise and numbers will only be blessed when it does good to society and human beings. The sense of humanity was evident in all of Abdulkadir Al Muhaidib's behaviors, and charitable work accompanied him in every step of his successful journey since he opened a humble shop in the 1940s until his work turned into a powerful investment force both regionally and internationally.
